Our comprehensive curriculum

Navigate global business and people management with a programme built for today's fast-paced world.

Develop the strategic and leadership skills needed to succeed in the fast-paced global business landscape. Through a blend of advanced analytical techniques, real-world case studies, and practical learning, you'll master the complexities of managing diverse, multicultural teams while fostering inclusive workplace cultures that drive sustainable growth.

With a focus on equality, diversity, and inclusion, the programme empowers you to lead with integrity and make a meaningful impact in any sector. By engaging with industry-relevant frameworks and research-informed teaching, you'll be equipped to tackle global challenges, lead across borders, and thrive in an interconnected world.

You'll walk away ready to:

- Tackle future management and leadership challenges with advanced problem-solving and communication skills.
- Conduct independent research using relevant techniques to solve global business and HR problems with originality and self-direction.
- Make ethical decisions and address diversity, equality, and inclusion challenges, promoting fairness and social responsibility.
- Enhance your employability by building industry connections, leveraging career networks, and gaining practical experience.

Engaging modules at your convenience

With Roehampton Online, learning is possible anywhere, anytime, and in any way. In this programme, you'll work through each forward-looking, research-driven module at your own pace, allowing you to balance your studies and personal commitments with ease.

You'll engage in a blend of hands-on learning and innovative assessments, applied projects, and a practical dissertation to challenge your analytical thinking and problem-solving skills to prepare you for the real world.

Compulsory:

1. Global Strategic Management
2. Leadership and Change Management
3. Financial Performance Management
4. Business Research Methods
5. Supply Chain Strategy and Processes
6. Applied Research or Consultancy Project (Dissertation)

Elective Modules (select two):

1. Principles of Human Resource Management
2. Managing Across Borders
3. Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion in the Workplace

Global Strategic Management

Build the expertise to craft and implement corporate strategies on a global scale, integrating sustainability, data-driven decision-making, and stakeholder relations to drive business success.

Leadership and Change Management

Learn how to lead organisations through change, mastering the strategies to manage cultural differences, employee engagement, and leadership effectiveness in an evolving business environment.

Financial Performance Management

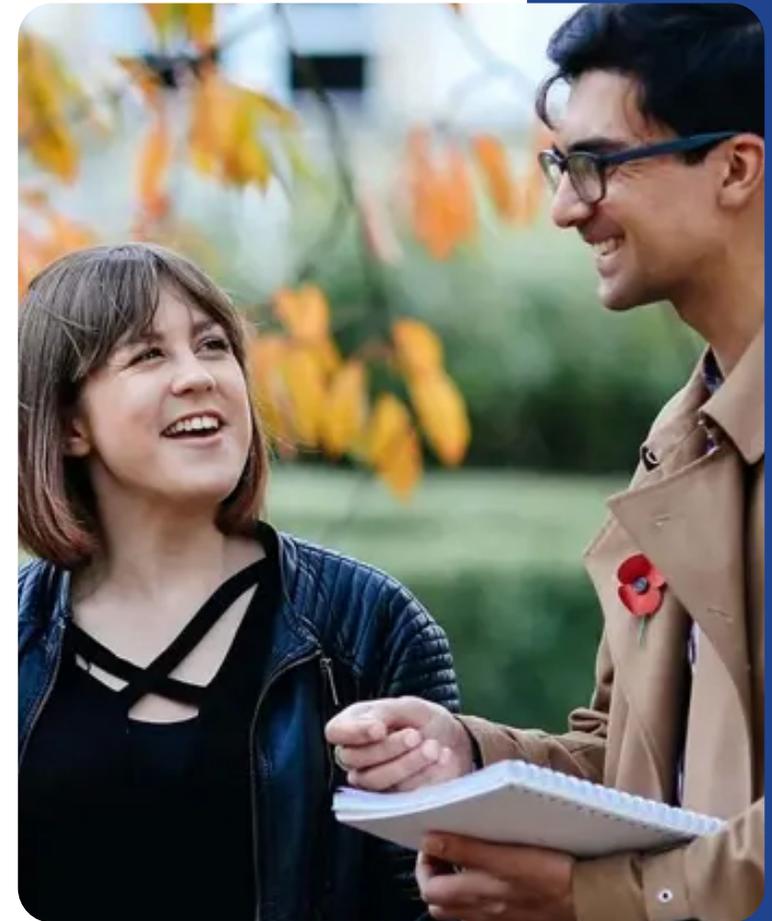

Gain the skills to manage financial resources effectively, using tools like budgeting, the balanced scorecard, and cost analysis to drive organisational performance and support strategic decision-making.

Business Research Methods

Master the research techniques needed for your capstone project, from design and data analysis to ethical considerations, while developing the critical skills necessary to address real-world business challenges.

Supply Chain Strategy and Processes

Develop a deep understanding of global supply chains, focusing on managing key processes like materials, services, and information to optimise operations and maintain competitiveness in a global marketplace.

Applied Research or Consultancy Project (Dissertation)

Tackle a real-world business challenge by critically analysing an identified problem and delivering a theory-based, actionable solution. This project allows you to apply your knowledge and skills to make a meaningful impact

Principles of Human Resources Management (Elective)

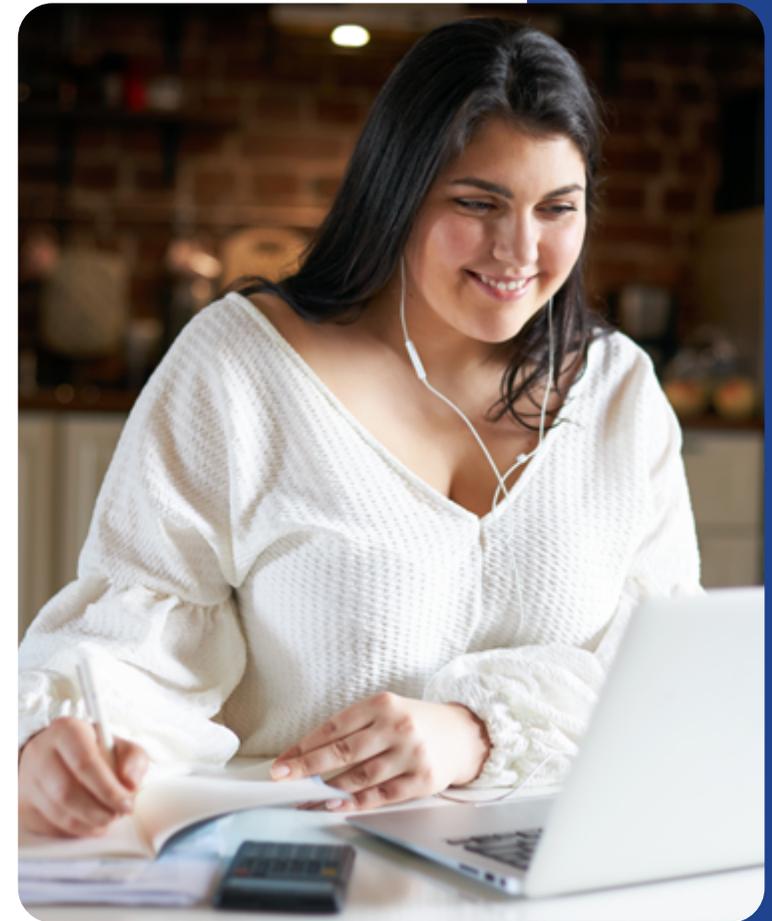

Explore the evolution of HRM and its ethical considerations, while developing key leadership and management skills, including team-building, interpersonal communication, and decision-making in diverse organisational settings.

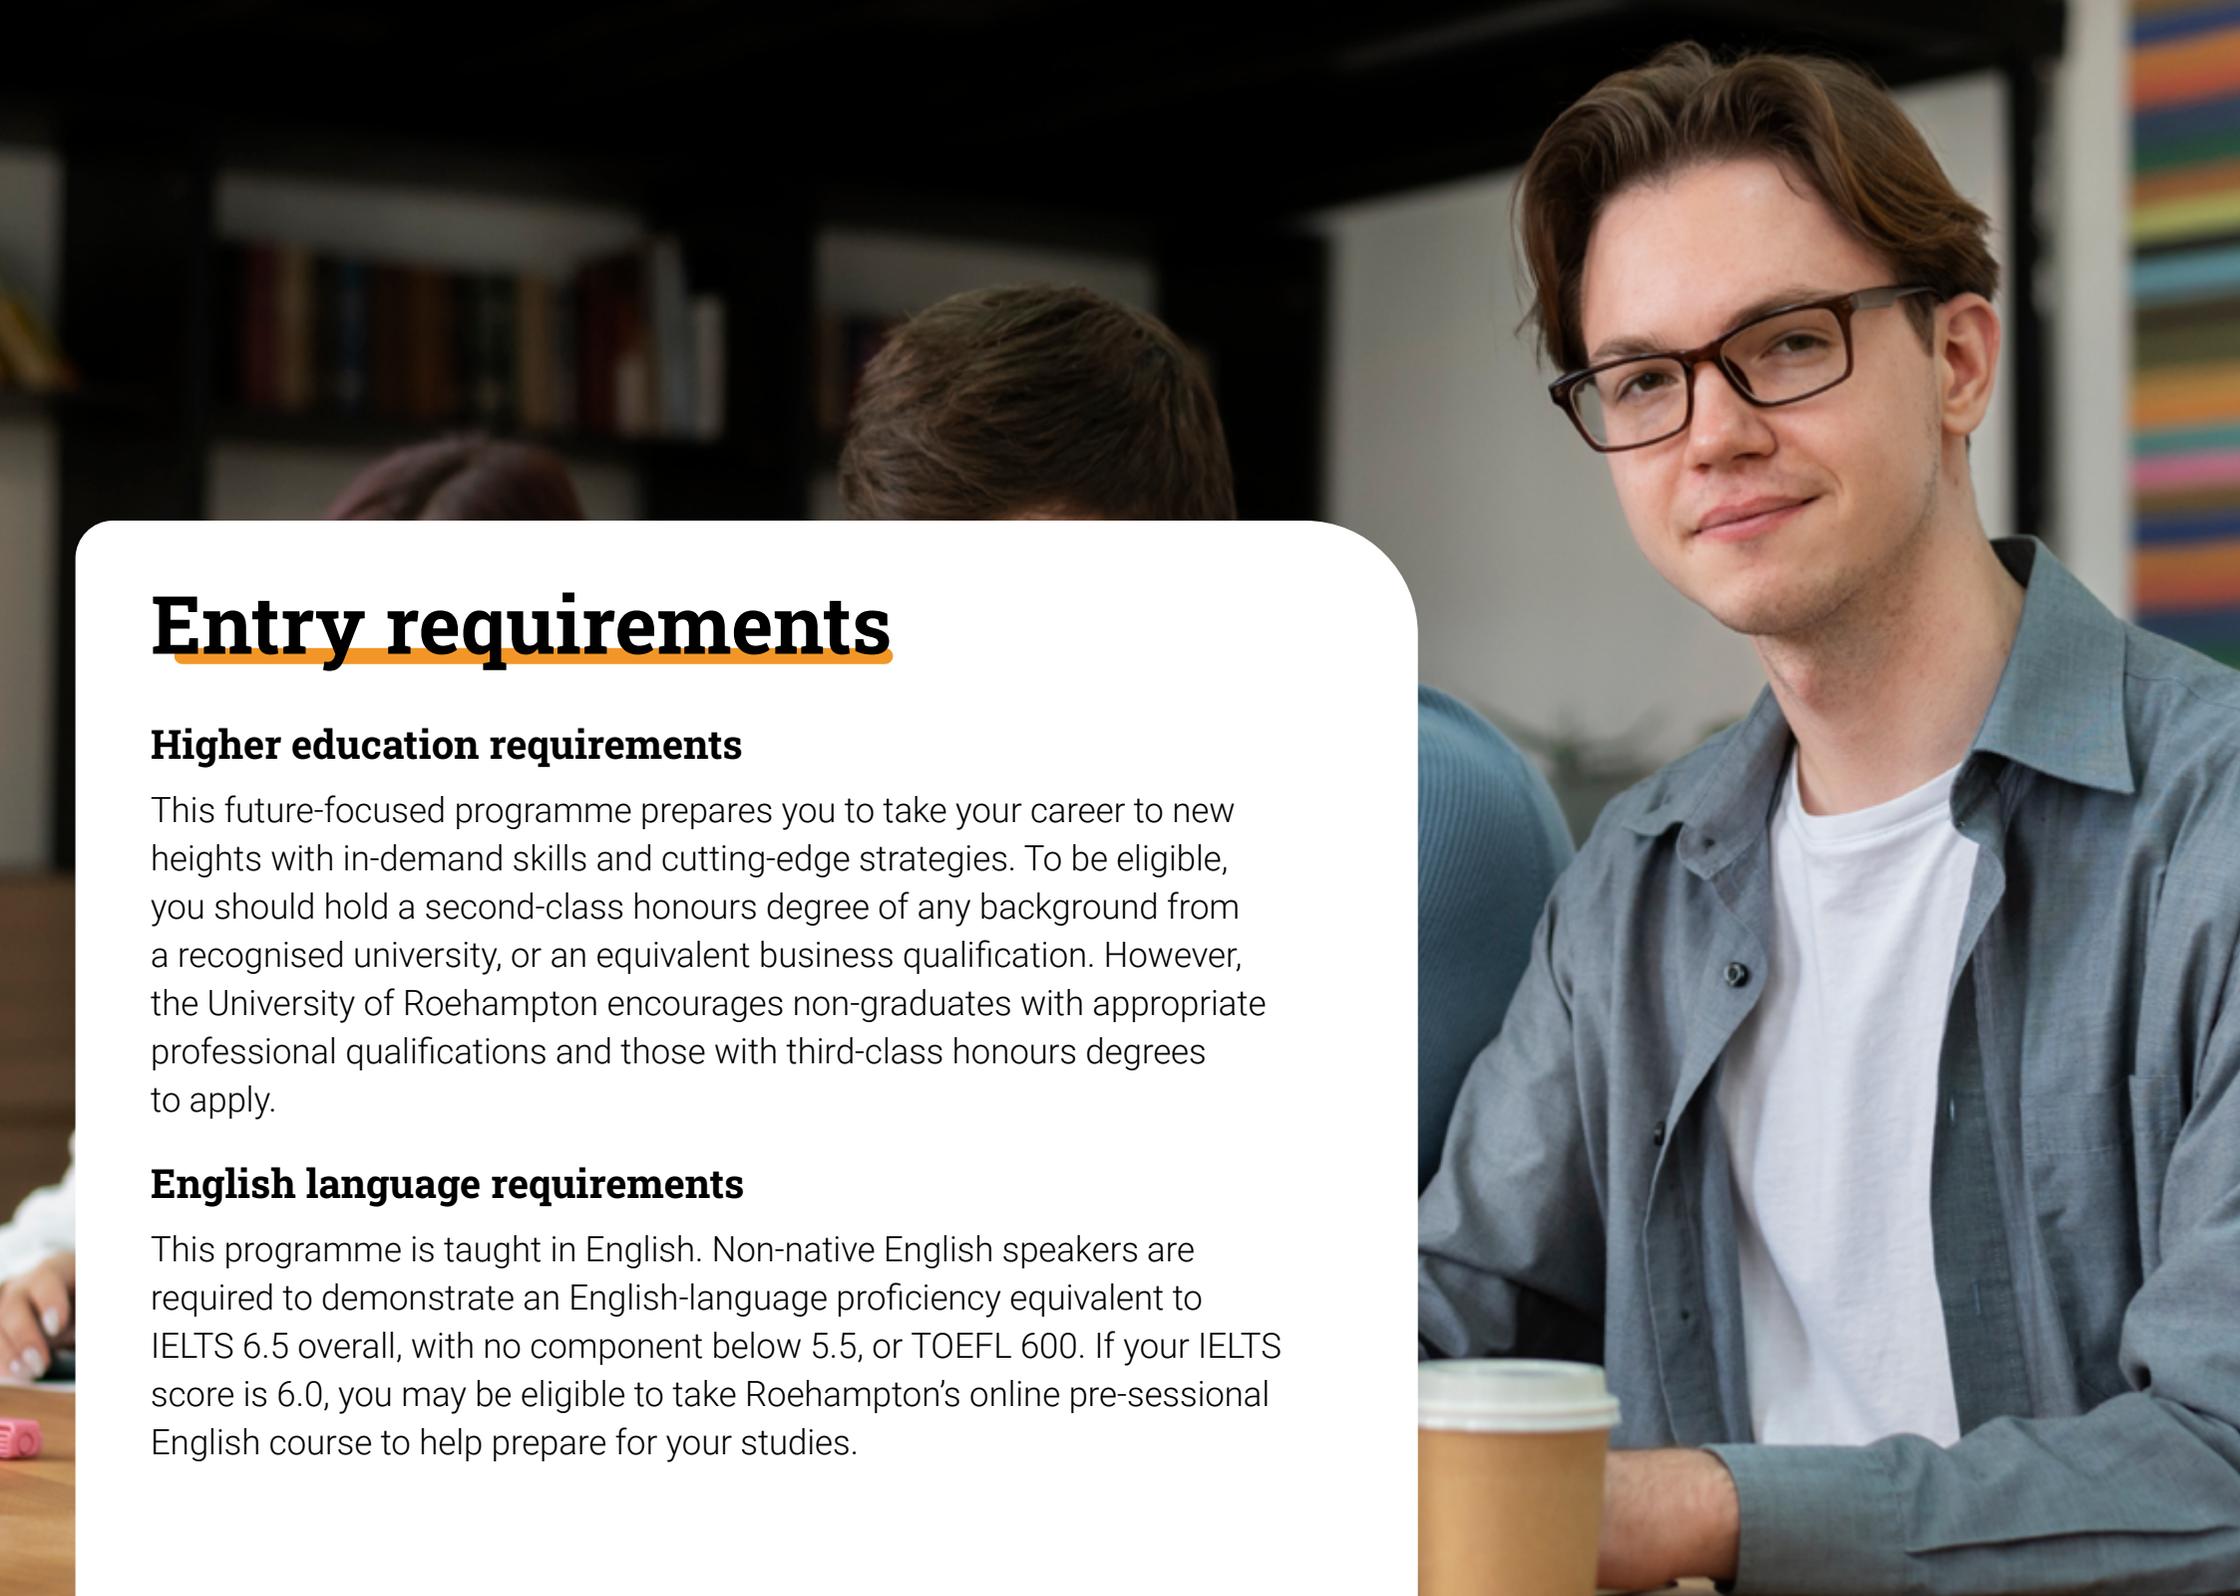

Managing Across Borders (Elective)

Prepare to manage diverse teams across borders, gaining the skills to navigate cross-cultural challenges and develop strategies that enhance organisational performance on a global scale.

Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion in the Workplace (Elective)

Explore the principles of equality, diversity, and inclusion, learning how to create fair and inclusive workplaces by addressing issues of discrimination and developing practical, evidence-based solutions.

Entry requirements

Higher education requirements

This future-focused programme prepares you to take your career to new heights with in-demand skills and cutting-edge strategies. To be eligible, you should hold a second-class honours degree of any background from a recognised university, or an equivalent business qualification. However, the University of Roehampton encourages non-graduates with appropriate professional qualifications and those with third-class honours degrees to apply.

English language requirements

This programme is taught in English. Non-native English speakers are required to demonstrate an English-language proficiency equivalent to IELTS 6.5 overall, with no component below 5.5, or TOEFL 600. If your IELTS score is 6.0, you may be eligible to take Roehampton's online pre-sessional English course to help prepare for your studies.
